lingopundit

How Lingopundit helped 2,800+ learners speak German.

The live German course for busy people: learn it, practise it, speak it.

Vaishnav Kesherwani
Data Engineer | Analytics Engineer | Just Eat Takeaway

"I began my German journey with Chakshu from absolute zero, and within just 9 weeks I was already having conversations, something I never imagined achieving so fast."

Sound familiar?

- No time: job, studies, family, moving
- Classes run 90 minutes to 2.5 hours
- You miss one class and feel lost
- German grammar scares you
- You know the rules but freeze when you have to speak
- The teacher talks; you get 5 to 10 minutes to speak

How the live course works

1 Before class

In the Lingopundit Classroom, any time · about 20–30 min

Video lesson	10–15 minutes, crisp and clear
Exercises	words → sentences → real life
Vocabulary	new words, practised until they stick
Reading	a task in every lesson
Writing	a task with instant feedback
Notes	for every lesson, to revise from
Doubts	answered within 24 hours

2 In class

Live on Google Meet

45 minutes	of speaking, Monday to Friday
No lecture	speaking, discussion, role plays, your doubts
Pair work	breakout rooms, so nobody sits idle
Max 10 people	everyone speaks in every class

Missed a class? Do that day's lesson and exercises, and you're ready for the next one.

Who teaches you

YOUR VIDEO LESSONS

Chakshu Bansal

YOUR LIVE CLASSES

Handpicked Lingopundit trainers

- Full-time German trainers: teaching German is their job, not a side job next to a corporate one
- Every trainer is at least B2 certified
- Every trainer has at least 3 years of teaching experience
- They teach from the same lessons you just did, so class picks up exactly where your lesson ended
